Numb. 4037

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1745.

Hamburgh, January 15.

ACcording to ſome Advices from the Upper Palatinate, the Imperialiſts, on the Approach of General Thungen's Troops, abandon'd Ambergh precipitately, and retired on the Side of Dietfurth. We know not well how to account for this, or how to give Credit to this Report, though it ſince has been ſaid with the following Circumſtance; viz. That the Imperialiſts in Ambergh relied on receiving Relief from the French Troops quarter'd in Suabia; but when the Regard of thoſe Forces was expected, M. Mailleboid de Camp brought an Account, that his Poſts were every Moment in Danger of being attack'd and forced by the Army of the Allies; and therefore it was abſolutely impoſſible for him to ſpare ſuch a Corps as would ſuffice to oblige the Auſtrians to raiſe the Siege. Upon this, the Commander of the Imperial Garriſon conſidering the Weakneſs of the Place, the ſmall Number of his Troops not exceeding 600 Men, and the Superiority of the Enemy, immediately determined to ſave the Town, as the only Thing left in his Power. It is now confeſſed, that this ſeems to explain the Conduct of the Governor, and to render the former Act more excuſable; but ſtill many People here doubt of the Fact; and ſuppoſing it true, the French have abandoned the Emperor, and he muſt once more be obliged to leave his Dominions to the Mercy of the Auſtrians. Some of our Politicians have invented a new Cauſe for the Elector's putting himſelf into the Hands of the Hanoverians, which was, to rouſe the King of Pruſſia; and it is ſaid, that it has had its Effect, that Prince having doubled his Preparations for War ſince that Account; with Regard to which, he expreſſes his Reſentment in the higheſt Terms poſſible.

Bergen, January 19. The Auſtrian Artillery arrived laſt in the Evening at Berchem; and all the Troops the Allies deſign'd to ſuccour us, are marching for that Purpoſe with the utmoſt Diligence. The French ſenſible of this, have carried away the Bridge of Boats that we had in the Neighbourhood of Neuwied, in order to prevent their making uſe of them. The Accounts we have from Worms are of ſuch a Nature, as leave us no Room to doubt what Sort of Treatment we ſhould have met with, if, according to their firſt Deſign, the French had taken Winter Quarters here for ſome Months. For at the City before-mentioned, they have not only beggar'd the People, by raiſing moſt extraordinary Contributions, neceſſary, as they pretended, for their Subſiſtence, but have likewiſe ſent for Six large Bottom'd Veſſels, to carry away the Wine, Brandy, Corn, and Meal they ſhall be able to find in any of the Publick Houſes when they depart; ſo that the Inhabitants of Worms would ſcarce have found themſelves in a worſe Condition, if the Place had been taken by Aſſault. And our Elector had good Reaſon to tell M. Chanclos's Aid de Camp, when he aſſur'd him the Emperor would not treat his Subjects as Enemies, but as Friends; That it was for that very Reaſon he dreaded the Enemy moſt; for that he had obſerv'd that their Friends had done more by them than their Enemies.

Bruſſels, January 18. The Count de Caunitz, at preſent Adminiſtrator of the Low Countries, held Yeſterday a Council of War, in which it was reſolved to march immediately the 8000 Hanoverians that are in this Country, for the Wetteraw. The National Artillery is to march the Day following for Louvain, under the Eſcort of the Regiments of Wulfenbuttle and Loskios; and will continue its Route with all imaginable Diligence from thence, to the County of Juliers. A Brigade of Engineers will take the ſame Route the ſame Day. We learn with great Diſatisfaction, that our Independent Companies, which march from hence for Aix la Chapelle, have committed ſome Exceſſes on the Road; for which, it is ſaid, their Officers will be called to Account.

Valenciennes, January 18. Lieutenant-General Baron de Wartzenbourg is ſpeedily expected here, as is alſo Lieutenant-General Count de Hompeſch, who commands the Dutch Troops. All the Troops which are in the Auſtrian Low Countries have Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march at an Hour's Warning, which is undoubtedly owing to the continual Motions of the French, who ſtill talk of forming a Camp of 20,000 Men at Quesnoin; and it is very probable they will do ſo, having already canton'd that Number of Men in the Towns and Villages in the Neighbourhood.

The ſame Day this Ship left France, the Swallow, Ruſſel, of Biddeford, from Newfoundland, was brought into Breſt by two French Men of War from Cape Breton. 'The Swallow came 'out under Convoy of the Kingſale Man of War, Cap'tain Young; but a few Days after ſhe came out from 'St. John's, a violent Storm of Wind ſcatter'd the whole 'Fleet, and 'tis fear'd we ſhall have a poor Account of 'them.'

Sailed the Good Intent, Read, for Cork; the Dettingen, Daniel, for London; and the New Eagle Privateer, Bazeley, on a Cruize.

Deal, January 17. Wind E. N. E. This Morning his Majeſty's Ships the Princeſs Louiſa and Wolf Sloop ſailed to the Weſtward, with the Havanna, Bearſon, for Gibraltar; and the Granado Bomb to the Northward. Remain the Harwich and Shoreham Men of War.

LONDON.

His Portugueſe Majeſty has cauſed an Altar, in Moſaic Work, to be erected in the Portugueſe Chapel at Rome, repreſenting the Baptiſm of our Saviour in the River Jordan, which has coſt a Million of Crowns, in Satisfaction of a Vow he made when he was firſt attack'd with an Apoplexy.

They write from Glogau, in Sileſia, that on the 20th of December, N. S. there had been the moſt dreadful Storm that ever happen'd in the Memory of Man; the Wind was prodigiouſly high; it Thunder'd and Lighten'd for three Hours, and Snow'd all the time; but what is thought moſt ſurprizing, it was not attended with any fatal Accidents.

We learn from Ghent, that one of the Gates of the City of Louvain was ſet on Fire on the 14th of this Month, but was happily put out before any great Miſchief was done; but as it was occaſioned by the Negligence of ſome Soldiers and Subaltern Officers, who kept Guard there, they have been arreſted and ſent to Priſon.

Yeſterday at a Court of Directors of the India Company, Capt. George Weſcott, jun. Commander of the Scarborough; and Capt. John Blake, of the Lincoln, both bound for Madiera and Coaſt and Bay; with Capt. Benjamin Webſter, of the Admiral Vernon, bound for Madraſs and Bengal, took their Leaves of the ſaid Court, in order to proceed on their Voyage, under Convoy of the Men of War lately appointed by the Admiralty for that Purpoſe.

Letters from Boſton in New England, dated Dec. 9. adviſe, that the Comet Bomb was arrived there from Antigua, to convoy ſome Veſſels, with Maſts, for his Majeſty's Service, for that Iſland; ſhe brought in with her a French Privateer Snow, of about 100 Men, whom ſhe met with in her Paſſage, and fought for a conſiderable Time before ſhe took her. The French Captain had pawn'd his Honour that he would not be taken; and it appear'd that every Thing had been prepared for the blowing of her up, when the Captain being ſhot thro' the Head, the reſt thought it more adviſeable to ſurrender.

The John, Capt. Inches, from London for Boſton, which 'twas feared had been carried into Cape Breton, was not there when a Flag of Truce came thence to Boſton; ſo that 'tis probable ſhe was ſail'd to the Weſtward.

They write from Birmingham, that on Saturday laſt three Perſons had the Misfortune to break their Legs, occaſioned by the Slipperineſs of the Streets on the breaking of the Froſt; and the ſame Night a Woman, with a Child in her Arms, going from that Town for Saltey, in the Dark, miſtook her Way, fell into the Water at Saltey Forge, and were both drown'd.

Laſt Week Shukbrugh Aſhby, Eſq; jun. of Blaby in the County of Leiceſter, was married to Miſs Fanny Ward, of Melton Mowbray in the ſaid County; an agreeable Lady, with a handſome Fortune.

The Honourable the Houſe of Commons have adjourned to Tueſday next.

The Corps of his Grace the late Duke of Bridgewater, will be carried from his late Dwelling Houſe in Cleveland Row, St. James's, To-morrow, in order to be interr'd in a private Manner at Brackley in Northamptonſhire.

Yeſterday a Man, far advanc'd in Years, dropt down dead in Duke-ſtreet, Weſtminſter, ſuppoſed to have an an Apoplectick Fit.

And this Day the Coroner's Inqueſt will ſit upon him.

The ſame Day a Coachman was unfortunately thrown off his Coach Box near the Pay Office at Whitehall, and ſo fractur'd his Scull that his Life is in Danger.

Miſs Fazakerley, only Daughter of Nicholas Fazakerley, Eſq; is ill of the Small Pox, at his Houſe in Lincoln's-Inn Fields.

Laſt Thurſday Night Mr. Hughes, a Watchman belonging to the Cuſtom Houſe, was unfortunately drown'd as he was going on board a Lighter at Tower Dock.

Yeſterday the Seſſions ended at the Old Bailey, when Six Priſoners were tried; Four of whom were caſt for Tranſportation, and Two Acquitted.

Martha Stracey, who was capitally Convicted on Wedneſday laſt, receiv'd Sentence of Death.

The Judgment of the Court upon the Two Sodomites (in the Account of which, in our Paper of Yeſterday, there was ſome Miſtake) is as follows: viz. That Richard Manning is to be impriſoned for Six Months; to find Sureties for his good Behaviour for Three Years; himſelf to be bound in the Penalty of 40 l. and Two Sureties of 40 l. each.

John Davis to be impriſon'd for Three Months; to find Sureties for his good Behaviour for One Year; himſelf bound in the Penalty of 20 l. and Two Sureties 20 l. each.

And they are to ſtand One Hour in the Pillory, between the Hours of Eleven and Two, in St. Paul's Churchyard, within the Space of One Month.

Laſt Thurſday John Francis and John Wells were committed to the Poultry Compter by Mr. Alderman Benn, for ſtealing a Barrel of Fiſh, Value 40 s. the Property of Mr. Kittermaſter, of Fiſhſtreet-Hill, Fiſhmonger.

Yeſterday John Smith was committed to Woodſtreet Compter by Sir Robert Willimott, for breaking and entring the Dwelling Houſe of Mrs. Cumber, in Maidenhead Court, in Aldersgate Street, and taking thereout a large Quantity of Wearing Apparel, to the Value of 20 l. and upwards.

The ſaid Smith was alſo charged by Mr. George Harriſon, of Newgate-ſtreet, for ſtealing a Tin Pot, with Lamp Oil therein, Value 10 s.

He was alſo charged by Mr. James Moor, of Cripplegate Pariſh, Tinman, for ſtealing ſeveral of the Coach Lamps, and Tin Furniture belonging to them.

English Alquebaugh

THE Importers and Advertiſers of IRISH USQUEBAUGH, which they ſell at 29 Shillings per Gallon, having been extravagantly laviſh in their Commendations of it, and endeavouring to inſinuate, with equal Modeſty and Truth, that there is ſomething ſo peculiar Hibernian in this Compoſition, that it is impoſſible to prepare it in any Part of the World ſo well as at Dublin or Drogheda:

At the Deſire of ſeveral Gentlemen, who look upon this Peculiarity to conſiſt rather in Price than Excellence, and in order to do Juſtice to the Produce and Manufacture of our own Country, theſe Importers and Advertiſers are called upon to anſwer the following Queries:

Whether the Diſtilling Trade has not been much more improved in England than in Ireland?

Whether in the whole Compoſition of their Iriſh Uſquebaugh there is a ſingle Ingredient, which is not to be had in as great Plenty, and in full as great a Degree of Perfection, at London, as at their favourite Places Dublin or Drogheda?

And if the above Improvement has been made here in the Diſtillery, and we have the fineſt Saffron in the World, beſides Plenty and Excellence of every other requiſite Ingredient, Why may we not make as fine Uſquebaugh as at either of the above-mentioned Places?

While their Anſwer is preparing, that an Appeal may lie before the Publick, as well as before theſe intereſted Gentlemen, a London Diſtiller, who deſires no other Recommendation of his Uſquebaugh than what may reſult from a fair Trial, begs Leave to inform the Nobility and Gentry, that a Warehouſe is open'd oppoſite to Garraway's Coffee-houſe in Exchange-Alley, where (for Ready Money) is expoſed to Sale, a large Parcel of Engliſh Uſquebaugh, Green and Yellow, at 14 s. per Gallon.
